FVE elects new Board for 2011-2013

Brussels, 20 June 2011

At the spring General Assembly held on 10 June in Palermo, Italy, members of the Federation of Veterinarians of Europe elected a new Board for a 2-years term (2011-2013).

The members of FVE unanimously elected Christophe Buhot from France to the position of President. Christophe Buhot is a veterinary practitioner having his own mainly small animal practice in Castelnau de Médoc near Bordeaux, France. He was FVE Vice-President since 2009 and has been in the Board of UEVP, FVE's Section representing the practicing veterinarians, from 2001-2009. He also has been member of the board of the SNVEL (Syndicat National des Vétérinaires d' Exercice Libéral), the French Association of practitioners since 1998.

Elected as Vice-Presidents were:

- Hans Joachim Götz from Germany,
- Rafael Laguens from Spain,
- Robert Huey from United of Kingdom,
- Karin Östensson from Sweden

The new FVE Board will strive for FVE to remain pro-active promoting animal health, welfare and public health by taking a leadership role to get overall recognition of the "One Health" concept.

FVE will continue to endeavor for the veterinary profession to remain valued and acknowledged by EU societies so veterinarians can carry out the tasks society conferred upon them.
